Not sure if your jeans are super or slim fit? Well, we've got a guide to help you choose the perfect fit. What is a slim fit? A slim fit jeans will give your lower body a slimmer look. While a super fit jeans will hug your body and make you look more buff. But as with all jeans, there is a good fit and a bad fit. Here's how to tell the difference between slim and super: A super fit jean will sit comfortably and straight. They hug your body in all the right places and are unlikely to pinch or bag anywhere. The ideal super fit jean should fit snug, with a good support in the underpants. The hem should fall about an inch above your ankle. A slim fit jean will sit comfortably on your lower body. It's likely to be a little baggy and have some give at the knees. An ideal slim fit jean should sit comfortably and should have a slight curve around the knees and thighs. The hem should sit about mid-way between your hip and ankle. Super and slim fit jeans differ in a number of areas, but here are some highlights: Super fit jeans: They give you a smooth, polished look. They're much more form fitting than a slim fit and have a more crisp, straight appearance. A super fit jean will sit snugly on your hips and
